Biography

Christopher Fickeisen joined YA Group in 2017 and immediately went to work with projects during the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey and Maria. Since a young age, he has worked on various construction projects and has always been interested in the construction business. He learned quickly from his father's business and became a foreman/supervisor, allowing him to understand the big picture and to always maximize efficiencies and work collaboratively.

He has experience with the local 107 Carpenters Union, and comprehensive experience from classes at vocational trade school. Christopher's background, work ethic, project management/estimating experience combined with his ability to jump in and complete a project makes him a valuable asset to any team.
