Biography

TRINA Gore joined YA Group in 2018 as Director of UK Client Relations. Trina has been involved with the Lloyd's of London market since 1984 and throughout her career has worked for several prominent Lloyd's syndicates. She also spent 7 years working for Xchanging, the Lloyd's Claims Office, supporting the leading underwriters' on complex claims. One such complex matter included a case that was pending in the US Supreme Court when the court took the rare step of requesting the government's input from the US Solicitor General. Trina assisted Counsel, in a meeting in Washington, with her knowledge of and experience with the London market which was invaluable and resulted in the Solicitor General filing his brief supporting underwriters. Trina has practical competence and joined YA to support their growth through the advancement of our business development team, forging great working relationships between YA and clients.
