Biography

Marc Lowery is a Partner at YA Group with extensive building knowledge in the building restoration and construction-defect industries. His collaborative approach to complex problems within large scale mitigation and reconstruction projects provides for detailed damage assessments, accurate cost estimates, and scope resolution. Marc excels in contractor invoice reviews, repair protocols, and scope negotiations.

Marc began his career in 2003 managing multiple large projects for a leading Northern California restoration contractor and has built his career around the roles of project manager, estimator, consultant, marketing/sales professional, and owner.
