Biography

Chris Banton, Sr. joined YA Group in 2025 as a Regional Consultant, bringing with him extensive experience in construction management. He has successfully led projects ranging from $1 million to $100 million across commercial, residential, and catastrophe-related sectors throughout the United States.

Chris has worked closely with insurance carriers on residential policies, complex claims, builder's risk, and subrogation matters, and has supported attorneys on litigation files. He also serves as an Appraiser and is frequently called upon to act as an Umpire, offering objective dispute resolution services.

His areas of expertise include scope assessment, estimating, cost audits, schedule analysis, and change management. Chris is highly proficient in interpreting construction contracts, technical drawings, specifications, and engineering reports, ensuring accurate and thorough evaluations.
