BIOGRAPHY

Trina Gore is the Director of UK Client Relations at YA Group. Trina has been involved with the Lloyd's of London market since 1984 and throughout her career has worked for several prominent Lloyd's syndicates. She also spent seven years working for Xchanging, the Lloyd's Claims Office, supporting the leading underwriters on complex claims. One such complex matter included a case that was pending in the US Supreme Court when the court took the rare step of requesting the government's input from the US Solicitor General. Trina assisted Counsel, in a meeting in Washington, with her knowledge of and experience with the London market which was invaluable and resulted in the Solicitor General filing his brief supporting underwriters.

Trina has practical competence and supports YA Group's growth through the advancement of the business development team, forging great working relationships between YA Group and clients.
